

YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO RECEIVE A “GOOD FAITH ESTIMATE” EXPLAINING HOW MUCH YOUR MEDICAL CARE WILL COST

Under the No Surprises Act, health care providers are required to give patients who don't have insurance or who are not using insurance an estimate of the bill for scheduled medical items and services.

- You have the right to receive a Good Faith Estimate for the expected cost of any scheduled non-emergency items or services. This includes related costs like medical tests, equipment, and hospital fees.
- Make sure your health care provider gives you a Good Faith Estimate verbally and/or in writing at least 1 business day before your scheduled medical service or item. You can also ask your health care provider, and any other provider you choose, for a Good Faith Estimate before you schedule an item or service.
- If you receive a bill that is at least $400 more than your Good Faith Estimate, you can dispute the bill.
- Make sure to save a copy or picture of your Good Faith Estimate.
